60F Consequences of 2 consecutive fail assessments

Application of section

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if both of the following conditions are satisfied:
- (a) APRA gives the trustee or trustees of an entity a notification of a determination under subsection 60C(2) that the requirement in subsection 60D(1) has not been met for a Part 6A product offered by the entity, in relation to a financial year;
 - (b) APRA gives the trustee or trustees of the entity a notification (the second notification) of another determination under subsection 60C(2) that the requirement in subsection 60D(1) has not been met for that Part 6A product, in relation to the next financial year.

No new beneficiaries for the Part 6A product

- (2) Each trustee of the entity must ensure that:
- (a) a person who, on the day when the second notification is given, is not a beneficiary of the entity does not become a beneficiary of the entity who holds the Part 6A product; and
 - (b) a person who, on that day, is a beneficiary of the entity who does not hold the Part 6A product does not start to hold the Part 6A product.

Exemption determination

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a Part 6A product offered by an entity if a determination made by APRA under subsection (4) that specifies the Part 6A product and the entity is in force.
- (4) APRA may make a determination, in writing, that specifies a Part 6A product offered by a specified entity, if APRA considers that requirements specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection have been met in relation to the Part 6A product and the entity.

- (5) The determination comes into force on:
 - (a) the day on which the determination is made; or
 - (b) a later day specified in the determination.
- (6) APRA must give a copy of the determination to the entity as soon as practicable after making it.
- (7) A determination under subsection (4) is not a legislative instrument.
- (8) To avoid doubt, if APRA makes a determination under subsection (4) in relation to a Part 6A product:
 - (a) APRA may later give notifications for the purposes of subsection (1) in relation to the Part 6A product in relation to financial years ending after APRA made the determination; and
 - (b) subsection (3) does not prevent subsection (2) from applying in relation to the Part 6A product as a result of those notifications.

Family law payment splits

- (9) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to:
 - (a) a person becoming a beneficiary of an entity who holds a Part 6A product, if this occurs as a result of a payment split (within the meaning of Part VIIIIB of the Family Law Act 1975); or
 - (b) a person starting to hold a Part 6A product, if this occurs as a result of such a payment split.

Notifications to Fair Work Commission

- (10) If:
 - (a) subsection (2) starts to apply in relation to a Part 6A product that is a MySuper product offered by an entity; or
 - (b) APRA makes a determination under subsection (4) in relation to a Part 6A product that is a MySuper product offered by an entity;

APRA must notify the Fair Work Commission in writing of that fact.

60G Multiple Part 6A products treated as one Part 6A product in certain circumstances

- (1) This section applies if regulations made for the purposes of this subsection:
 - (a) specify one or more kinds of circumstances; and
 - (b) specify provisions of this Part in relation to each of those kinds of circumstances.
- (2) In circumstances of a kind specified in the regulations, for the purposes of provisions of this Part specified in the regulations in relation to that kind of circumstances:
 - (a) treat 2 or more Part 6A products (the single Part 6A products) as being one Part 6A product (the combined Part 6A product); and
 - (b) treat anything that happened in relation to a single Part 6A product as having happened in relation to the combined Part 6A product; and
 - (c) treat a person who holds a single Part 6A product as holding the combined Part 6A product.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a Part 6A product (the replaced product) ceased to exist because it was incorporated into one or more single Part 6A products (whether or not the entity that offered the replaced product before it ceased to exist is the entity offering the single Part 6A product or any of the single Part 6A products).
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), treat anything that happened in relation to the replaced product as having happened in relation to the single Part 6A product.
- (5) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may:
 - (a) specify different provisions of this Part in relation to different kinds of circumstances; and
 - (b) in specifying provisions of this Part, specify all the provisions of this Part (apart from this section).

- (6) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may do any of the following:
- (a) specify requirements that depend on the exercise of a discretion by APRA;
 - (b) if the regulations specify requirements that depend on the exercise of such a discretion—specify matters that APRA must or may take into account in exercising that discretion;
 - (c) if the regulations specify requirements that depend on the exercise of such a discretion—allow APRA to make specified assumptions in exercising that discretion.
- (7) Subsections (5) and (6) do not limit the scope of regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1).

60H Requirements for contributions to blocked fund not enforceable

- (1) This section applies if there is a requirement in:
- (a) a Commonwealth law or a Territory law; or
 - (b) a Commonwealth industrial award or a Territory industrial award;
- that an employer make contributions to a specified superannuation fund (or to a superannuation fund in a specified class or group of superannuation funds) on behalf of an employee.
- (2) This section also applies if there is a requirement in
- (a) a State law; or
 - (b) a State industrial award;
- that an employer make contributions to a specified superannuation fund (or to a superannuation fund in a specified class or group of superannuation funds) on behalf of an employee.
- (3) The requirement is not enforceable to the extent that the employer cannot make contributions to the superannuation fund (or to any of those superannuation funds) on behalf of the employee because of section 60F (consequences of 2 consecutive fail assessments).
- (4) In this section, the following terms have the same meaning as in the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992:
- (a) Commonwealth industrial award;
 - (b) employee;

- (c) employer;
- (d) State industrial award;
- (e) Territory industrial award.

 - (a) a description of one or more methods for ranking Part 6A products;
 - (b) information relating to all Part 6A products that allows that method or those methods to be used to rank those Part 6A products.
- (2) In giving the description mentioned in paragraph (1)(a), APRA may take into account regulations mentioned in subsection (3).
- (3) Regulations made for the purposes of this section may:
 - (a) specify one or more formulas as a basis for ranking Part 6A products, or classes of Part 6A products, according to relative fee levels, investment returns or any other criterion; and
 - (b) specify one or more methods for ranking Part 6A products according to that formula or those formulas.
- (4) As soon as practicable after receiving the information, the Commissioner of Taxation must ensure that the information, to the extent that it relates to Part 6A products that are MySuper products, is made available on a website maintained by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Note: If the disclosure of information is for the purposes of this Act, subsection 56(3) of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 provides an exception to the secrecy offence in subsection 56(2) of that Act.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the information may be made available by:
 - (a) making it available only in response to a query by a particular person; and
 - (b) making it available in the form of a ranked list or ranked lists of Part 6A products, or classes of Part 6A products.
