 - (ii) the likely regulatory impact of the proposed rule; and
 - (iii) the likely effect of the proposed rule on the safety, fairness and effectiveness of competition in the provision of CS services; and
 - (iv) if the proposed rule will impose requirements in relation to a CS service—the structure of the market for the provision of the CS service; and

- (3) A failure to consult as required by subsection (1) does not invalidate a CS services rule.

828K Ministerial consent to rules required

- (1) ASIC must not make a CS services rule unless the Minister has consented, in writing, to the making of the rule.

Note: In some situations, consent is not required: see section 828L.

- (2) A consent under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

828L Emergency rules: consultation and consent not required

- (1) ASIC may make a CS services rule without consulting as required by section 828J, and without the consent of the Minister as required by section 828K, if ASIC is of the opinion that it is necessary, or in the public interest, to do so in order to protect:
 - (a) the Australian economy; or
 - (b) the efficiency, integrity and stability of the Australian financial system; or
 - (c) safety, fairness and effective competition in the provision of CS services.

828M Amendment and revocation of CS services rules

- (1) ASIC may amend or revoke a CS services rule in like manner and subject to like conditions (see subsections 33(3) and (3AA) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901).

- (4) An exemption by ASIC is a legislative instrument if the exemption is expressed to apply in relation to a class of persons, (whether or not it is also expressed to apply in relation to one or more persons identified otherwise than by reference to membership of a class).
- (5) If subsection (4) does not apply to an exemption by ASIC, the exemption is a notifiable instrument.
- (6) If there is an inconsistency between:

- (2) If:

- (a) an access seeker for the CS service is unable to agree with the provider on one or more aspects of access to the CS service that are or have been the subject of a negotiation under Division 3; and
- (b) the access seeker and the provider are or were parties to the negotiation;

either party may notify the Commission in writing that an access dispute exists.

Note: An example of one of the things on which a provider and an access seeker for a CS service might disagree is whether a previous determination ought to be varied.

- (3) The notification must include information about:
 - (a) the issues (if any) on which agreement has been reached in the negotiation under Division 3; and
 - (b) the issues that are in dispute; and
 - (c) if regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph specify other matters—those matters.
- (4) On receiving the notification, the Commission must give notice in writing of the access dispute, as soon as practicable, to:
 - (a) the provider, if the access seeker notified the access dispute; and
 - (b) the access seeker, if the provider notified the access dispute; and
 - (c) any other person whom the Commission thinks might want to become a party to the arbitration.

153ZEN Withdrawal of notifications

- (1) A notification under subsection 153ZEM(2) may be withdrawn as follows (and not otherwise):
 - (a) if the provider notified the dispute:
 - (i) the provider may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its final determination;
 - (ii) the access seeker may withdraw the provider's notification at any time after the Commission issues a draft final determination, but before it makes its final determination;

- (b) if the access seeker notified the dispute, the access seeker may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its final determination.
- (2) Despite subparagraph (1)(a)(ii), if the provider notified a dispute over variation of a final determination, the access seeker may not withdraw the provider's notification.
- (3) If the notification is withdrawn, it is taken for the purposes of this Part never to have been given.

Division 5—Arbitration of access disputes

153ZEO Parties to the arbitration

The parties to the arbitration of an access dispute notified under subsection 153ZEM(2) regarding access to a CS service are:

- (a) the provider mentioned in the notification; and
- (b) the access seeker mentioned in the notification; and
- (c) any other person who applies in writing to be made a party and is accepted by the Commission as having a sufficient interest.

153ZEP Determination by Commission

- (1) Unless it terminates the arbitration under section 153ZEU, the Commission:
 - (a) must make a written final determination; and
 - (b) may make a written interim determination; on access by the access seeker to the CS service.
- (2) A determination may deal with any matter relating to access to the CS service by the access seeker, including matters that were not the basis for notification of the access dispute.

Example: A determination may do any of the following:

- (a) require the provider to provide access to the CS service by the access seeker;
- (b) require the access seeker to accept, and pay for, access to the CS service;
- (c) specify the terms and conditions of the access seeker's access to the CS service;

- (d) vary or revoke an earlier determination relating to access to the CS service by the access seeker.
- (3) Before making a determination, the Commission must:
 - (a) give a draft determination to the parties; and
 - (b) consult ASIC and the Reserve Bank of Australia about the determination.
- (4) When the Commission makes a determination, it must give the parties its reasons for making the determination.

Note: The Commission must also publish a written report about a final determination it makes (see section 153ZET).
- (5) A determination is not a legislative instrument.

153ZEQ Restrictions on access determinations

- (1) The Commission must not make a determination that would have any of the following effects:
 - (a) preventing an existing user that is not related to the provider from obtaining sufficient access to the CS service to be able to meet the user's reasonably anticipated requirements, measured at the time when the dispute was notified;
 - (b) preventing a person that is not related to the provider from obtaining, by the exercise of a pre-notification right, sufficient access to the CS service to be able to meet the person's actual requirements;
 - (d) resulting in the access seeker becoming the owner (or one of the owners) of any part of the CS facility that is linked to the CS service, or of extensions of the CS facility, without the consent of the provider;
 - (e) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of extending the CS facility;
 - (f) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of maintaining extensions of the CS facility.
- (2) Paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply in relation to the requirements and rights of the access seeker and the provider when the Commission is making a determination in arbitration of an access dispute relating to an earlier determination of an access dispute between the access seeker and the provider.

- (3) A determination is of no effect to the extent it has any of the effects mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) If the Commission makes a determination that has the effect of depriving a person (the second person) of a pre-notification right to require the provider to supply the CS service to the second person, the determination must also require the access seeker:
- (a) to pay to the second person such amount (if any) as the Commission considers is fair compensation for the deprivation; and
 - (b) to reimburse the provider and the Commonwealth for any compensation that the provider or the Commonwealth agrees, or is required by a court order, to pay to the second party as compensation for the deprivation.

Note: Without infringing paragraph (1)(b), a determination may deprive a second person of the right to be supplied with an amount of CS service equal to the difference between the total amount of CS service the person was entitled to under a pre-notification right and the amount that the person actually needs to meet the person's actual requirements.

- (5) If the provider is not the holder of the Australian CS facility licence that authorises the operation of the CS facility, this section applies in relation to the holder in the same way as it applies in relation to the provider.
- (6) In this section:
- existing user means a person (including the provider) who was using the CS service at the time when the access dispute was notified.

pre-notification right means a right under a contract, or under a determination, that was in force at the time when the access dispute was notified.

153ZER Matters that the Commission must take into account

Final determinations

- (1) The Commission must take the following matters into account in making a final determination:

- (a) the objects of this Part;
 - (b) the operational and technical requirements (including those relating to interoperability and financial stability) necessary for the safe and reliable operation of a current or proposed CS facility that is or may be linked to the CS service;
 - (c) the pricing principles specified in subsection (3);
 - (d) if an obligation of the provider under an Australian law in relation to the CS service is mentioned in a party's case—that obligation;
 - (e) if the provider is not the holder of the Australian CS facility licence that authorises the operation of the CS facility, and an obligation of the holder under an Australian law in relation to the CS service is mentioned in a party's case—that obligation;
 - (f) any advice provided by ASIC or the Reserve Bank of Australia in response to consultations undertaken under paragraph 153ZEP(3)(b);
 - (g) any advice provided by ASIC or the Reserve Bank of Australia under subsection 153ZEX(3) in relation to the arbitration;
 - (h) any guidance or policies relating to CS services made by the Commission, ASIC or the Reserve Bank of Australia;
 - (i) the legitimate business interests of the provider, and the provider's investment in the CS facility;
 - (j) if the provider is not the holder of the Australian CS facility licence that authorises the operation of the CS facility—the legitimate business interests of the holder, and the holder's investment in the CS facility;
 - (k) the interests of all persons who have rights to access the CS service;
 - (l) the public interest, including the public interest in having competition in markets (whether or not in Australia).
- (2) The Commission may take any other matters that it thinks are relevant into account in making a final determination.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the pricing principles are as follows:

- (a) access prices should generate expected revenue for a CS service that reflects the costs of providing access to the CS service;
- (b) access prices should include a return on investment commensurate with the regulatory and commercial risks involved;
- (c) access price structures should not allow a vertically integrated provider to set terms and conditions that discriminate in favour of its related entities, except to the extent that the cost of providing access to other access seekers is higher;
- (d) access pricing should provide incentives to reduce costs or otherwise improve productivity.

Interim determinations

- (4) The Commission may take a matter referred to in subsection (1) or (2) into account in making an interim determination.
- (5) In making an interim determination, the Commission does not have a duty to consider whether to take into account a matter referred to in subsection (1).

153ZES Time limit for Commission's final determination

Commission to make final determination within 180 days

- (1) The Commission must make a final determination within the period of 180 days (the expected period) starting at the start of the day the access dispute is notified.

Extending the period

- (2) Before the end of the expected period, the Commission may, if satisfied it is appropriate to do so, extend the expected period.
- (3) When the Commission extends the expected period, it must:
 - (a) notify the parties of the extension before it takes effect; and
 - (b) give the parties reasons for the extension.
- (4) The expected period may be extended one or more times, but must not exceed 365 days.

Deemed final determination

- (5) If the Commission does not make a final determination within the expected period, it is taken, immediately after the end of the expected period, to have:
- (a) made a final determination that does not impose any obligations on the parties or alter any obligations (if any) that exist at that time between the parties; and
 - (b) published a written report about the final determination under section 153ZET.

153ZET Arbitration reports

- (1) The Commission must prepare a written report about a final determination it makes. It must publish, by electronic or other means, the report.
- (2) The report may include the whole or a part of the determination and the reasons for the determination or the part of the determination.

Report must include certain matters

- (3) The report must set out the following matters:
- (a) the issues on which agreement was reached between the parties to the arbitration and the issues which were in dispute;
 - (b) the principles the Commission applied in making the determination;
 - (c) the methodologies the Commission applied in making the determination;
 - (d) how the Commission took into account the matters mentioned in subsection 153ZER(1) in making the determination;
 - (e) any matter the Commission took into account under subsection 153ZER(2) in making the determination and the reasons for doing so;
 - (f) any information provided by the parties to the arbitration that was relevant to those principles or methodologies.

Note: Confidentiality issues are dealt with in subsections (5) and (6).

Report may include other matters

- (4) The report may include any other matter that the Commission considers relevant.

Confidentiality

- (5) The Commission must not include in the report any information the Commission decided not to give to a party to the arbitration under section 44ZL (as applied in relation to the arbitration by section 153ZEV).
- (6) Before publishing the report, the Commission must give each party to the arbitration a notice in writing:
- (a) specifying what the Commission is proposing to publish; and
 - (b) inviting the party to make a written submission to the Commission within 14 days after the notice is given identifying any information the party considers should not be published because of its confidential commercial nature.
- (7) The Commission must have regard to any submission so made in deciding what to publish. It may have regard to any other matter it considers relevant.

Legislation Act 2003

- (8) A report prepared under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

153ZEU Commission may terminate arbitration in certain cases

- (1) The Commission must terminate the arbitration of an access dispute (without making a final determination) if paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of the definition of declared CS service no longer apply to the CS service.
- (2) The Commission may at any time terminate the arbitration of an access dispute (without making a final determination) if it thinks that:
- (a) the notification of the access dispute was vexatious; or
 - (b) the subject matter of the access dispute is trivial, misconceived or lacking in substance; or

- (c) the party who notified the access dispute has not engaged in negotiations (including negotiations under Division 3) in good faith; or
 - (d) the negotiation under Division 3 that led to the notification of the access dispute is insufficiently relevant to the matters that a final determination is likely to deal with; or
 - (e) access to the CS service should continue to be governed by an existing contract between some or all of the parties to the arbitration.
- (3) In addition, if the dispute is about varying an existing determination, the Commission may terminate the arbitration if it thinks there is no sufficient reason why the previous determination should not continue to have effect in its present form.

Division 6—Procedure in arbitration

153ZEV Subdivision D of Division 3 of Part IIIA to apply

- (1) The following provisions apply in relation to an arbitration of an access dispute under this Part as if they were provisions of this Division:
 - (a) Subdivision D of Division 3 of Part IIIA;
 - (b) regulations made for the purposes of provisions in that Subdivision.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1):
 - (a) treat an arbitration of an access dispute under this Part as an arbitration of an access dispute under Part IIIA; and
 - (b) treat any reference in that Subdivision or in those regulations to:
 - (i) a provision in that Subdivision or those regulations as a reference to a provision in that Subdivision or those regulations as they apply because of this section; and
 - (ii) a third party as a reference to an access seeker; and
 - (b) treat the reference in subsection 44ZG(3) to any other provision of this Part as a reference to any other provision of that Subdivision or Part XICB.

- (3) The regulations may modify the provisions mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) in their application under subsection (1) in relation to an arbitration of an access dispute under this Part.
- (4) If the Commission holds a joint arbitration hearing in respect of 2 or more access disputes under section 44ZNA (as applied by subsection (1)), the Commission may make a single determination that covers all of the disputes.

153ZEW Commission's powers if information not provided in negotiations

Use in arbitration of information requested but not provided in negotiations

- (1) If:
 - (a) a party to the arbitration of an access dispute seeks to include certain information in its case; and
 - (b) in the negotiation under Division 3 that led to the notification of the access dispute, the information was the subject of a request under section 153ZEK; and
 - (c) the party, or a person related to the party, was the responding party (within the meaning of subsection 153ZEK(1)) to the request; and
 - (d) the responding party did not ensure that the requirements in subsection 153ZEK(3) were satisfied in respect of the request;the party must seek the Commission's permission in writing to include the information in its case.
- (2) In determining whether to grant permission under subsection (1), the Commission must have regard to:
 - (a) the desirability of the parties to the negotiation complying with the requirements in section 153ZEK; and
 - (b) whether the responding party was given a reasonable opportunity to ensure that the requirements in subsection 153ZEK(3) were satisfied in respect of the request before the access dispute was notified.

Commission's powers generally

- (3) If the Commission is satisfied that a party to the arbitration of an access dispute has failed to provide information in accordance with section 153ZEK in the negotiation under Division 3 that led to the notification of the access dispute, the Commission may do any of the following in the arbitration:
 - (a) direct that the party is not entitled to rely on specified information or materials;
 - (b) draw such adverse inferences from the failure as the circumstances justify;
 - (c) for the purposes of making a determination, not have regard to information that the party in the negotiation failed to provide in accordance with section 153ZEK.

153ZEX Sharing information with and requesting advice from ASIC and Reserve Bank

- (1) The Commission may do any of the following:
 - (a) notify ASIC or the Reserve Bank of Australia that an access dispute exists;
 - (b) request advice from ASIC or the Reserve Bank of Australia relating to the arbitration of an access dispute;
 - (c) give information relating to an access dispute to ASIC or the Reserve Bank of Australia for the purposes of a notification or request under paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) To avoid doubt, paragraph (1)(c) applies to confidential commercial information that the Commission thinks should not be given to the other parties to the arbitration under section 44ZL (as applied in relation to the arbitration by section 153ZEV).
- (3) ASIC and the Reserve Bank of Australia may give advice to the Commission relating to the arbitration of an access dispute.

Division 7—Effect of determinations

153ZEY Operation of final determinations

- (1) Unless otherwise specified, a final determination of an access dispute has effect 21 days after the determination is made.

Backdating

- (2) Any or all of the provisions of the final determination may be expressed to apply from a specified day that is earlier than the day on which it takes effect under subsection (1).

Example: The Commission makes a final determination on 1 August. It takes effect under subsection (1) on 22 August, but it is expressed to apply from 1 July.

- (3) The specified day must not be earlier than the day on which the notification of negotiations under section 153ZEH was given that led to the notification of the access dispute under section 153ZEM.
- (4) However, the specified day cannot be a day on which the access seeker did not have access to the CS service.

Operation of interim determination

- (5) If a provision of a final determination is expressed to apply from a day when an interim determination was in effect, the provision of the final determination prevails over the interim determination to the extent set out in the final determination.

Interest

- (6) If:
- (a) a provision of a final determination is covered by subsection (2); and
 - (b) the provision requires a party to the determination (the first party) to pay money to another party;
- the determination may require the first party to pay interest to the other party, at the rate specified in the determination, on the whole or a part of the money, for the whole or a part of the period:
- (c) beginning on the day specified under subsection (2); and
 - (d) ending on the day on which the determination takes effect under subsection (1).

153ZEZ Effect and duration of interim determinations

- (1) An interim determination made in the arbitration of an access dispute takes effect on the day specified in the determination.

- (2) Unless sooner revoked, such an interim determination continues in effect until the earliest of the following:
- (a) the notification of the access dispute is withdrawn under section 153ZEN;
 - (b) the arbitration is terminated under section 153ZEU;
 - (c) a final determination relating to the access dispute takes effect.

Note: A backdated final determination may prevail over an interim determination: see subsection 153ZEY(5).

Division 8—Variation and revocation of determinations

153ZFA Variation and revocation of determinations

- (1) The Commission may, if satisfied it is appropriate to do so, by written instrument vary or revoke a determination:
- (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on the application of any party to the determination.
- (2) Sections 153ZEQ and 153ZER apply to the making of a variation of a final determination as if:
- (a) an access dispute arising out of the final determination had been notified when the application was made to the Commission for the variation of the determination; and
 - (b) the variation were the making of a final determination in the terms of the varied determination.
- (3) Before making a variation, the Commission may give a draft variation to the parties.
- (4) When the Commission varies or revokes a determination, it must give the parties to the determination its reasons for doing so.
- (5) A variation or revocation is not a legislative instrument.

Division 9—Enforcement and remedies

153ZFB Prohibition on hindering access to declared services

- (1) The provider or a user of a CS service to which an access seeker has access under a determination, or a body corporate related to the provider or a user of the CS service, must not engage in conduct for the purpose of preventing or hindering the access seeker's access to the CS service under the determination.
- (2) A person may be taken to have engaged in conduct for the purpose referred to in subsection (1) even though, after all the evidence has been considered, the existence of that purpose is ascertainable only by inference from the conduct of the person or from other relevant circumstances. This subsection does not limit the manner in which the purpose of a person may be established for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (3) In this section, a user of a CS service includes a person who has a right to use the CS service.

153ZFC Division 7 of Part IIIA to apply

- (1) Division 7 of Part IIIA applies in relation to a determination under this Part as if they were provisions of this Division.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), treat:
