STATEMENT

1. Business lines will assume responsibility for administering the rules contained in Schedule 2F to the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (ITAA 1936) - the Trust Loss measures - including the consideration of whether a beneficiary has a fixed entitlement to a share of the income and/or capital of a trust under subsection 272-5(1) and the exercise of the discretion under subsection 272-5(3). Business lines will also assume responsibility for administering the application of this fixed entitlement concept where it is used or relied on in other provisions or contexts. Responsibility for these issues previously rested with the Losses & Capital Gains Tax Centre of Expertise.

2. It is essential that all references to the fixed entitlement concept in the Trust Loss measures are interpreted and applied consistently by the Commissioner in all of the various legislative contexts in which it is used. Requests for advice received in respect of persons having fixed entitlements to income and/or capital of a trust under subsection 272-5(1) and/or exercise of the discretion under subsection 272-5(3) must therefore be escalated to the business line's Trust Community of Practice member for consideration. (A hyperlink to contacts is contained in the other references section at the conclusion of this practice statement.) This includes all requests for advice received as to whether a trust is a 'fixed trust' or a 'non-fixed trust' where reference is made to the definitions in the Trust Loss measures (sections 272-65 and 272-70 respectively). Attachment A lists legislative references where the terms 'fixed entitlements' and 'fixed trust' need to be considered.

EXPLANATION

3. The Trust Loss measures were introduced to restrict the recoupment of prior year and current year losses and debt deductions of trusts in order to prevent the transfer of the tax benefit of those losses or deductions. Different tests apply in determining whether a trust can recoup its prior and current year losses and debt deductions depending on whether the trust is a fixed trust or a non-fixed trust.
4. In order to determine whether a trust is a fixed trust, it must be established that persons have fixed entitlements to all of the income and capital of the trust (section 272-65). Subsection 272-5(1) provides that for a person to have a fixed entitlement to the income or capital of a trust, the person must have a vested and indefeasible interest in a share of the respective income or capital of the trust. If a person does not have vested and indefeasible interests in the income and/or capital of the trust, the Commissioner may exercise a discretion under subsection 272-5(3) that a person does have a fixed entitlement.
5. Consideration of whether a beneficiary has a fixed entitlement to income and/or capital of a trust and the exercise of the discretion was originally designed only for purposes of the operation of the Trust Loss measures. However, since the introduction of the Trust Loss measures, the requirement of persons to have fixed entitlements to income and/or capital has also been incorporated in other tax legislation. Attachment A lists legislative references where the terms 'fixed entitlements' and 'fixed trust' as defined in the Trust Loss measures need to be considered.
6. It is essential that section 272-5 is consistently interpreted and applied by the Commissioner in the various legislative contexts and that the discretion be exercised only in the special kinds of circumstances with which it was intended to deal. All requests for advice received where consideration has to be given to interpretation and application of section 272-5 (whether for the purpose of the Trust Loss measures or for the purpose of any other provisions in the ITAA 1936 or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 that rely on that provision) are to be escalated to the relevant business line's Trust Community of Practice member for consideration.
