- the Commonwealth has received a minimal return, or no return on the advance; and
- ASIC has reason to believe that the Commonwealth is unlikely to receive more than a minimal return on the advance; and
- ASIC has reason to believe that either the corporations contravened the Corporations Act 2001 or Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006 and that the person failed to take reasonable steps to prevent the contravention or the person contravened the Corporations Act 2001 or Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006.

In these circumstances you are required to demonstrate, in accordance with subparagraph 206GAA(1)(b)(i) of the Act, why you should not be disqualified from managing corporations.

Under subsection 206GAA(1) of the Act you may be disqualified from managing corporations for a period of up to 5 years.

In making a decision under subsection 206GAA(1) of the Act ASIC is required to give you an opportunity to be heard in relation to why you should not be disqualified from managing corporations.

AREAS OF CONCERN

ASIC has identified a number of concerns about your conduct which are described in Attachment "A".

The documents on which these concerns are based are listed in Attachment "B".

OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD

If you wish to demonstrate why you should not be disqualified from managing corporations you should notify ASIC within 14 days from the date of service of this notice that you require an opportunity of being heard.

You may exercise your right to be heard by:

1. making a written submission; or
2. appearing before a person ASIC has appointed to hear the matter (the delegate) and making submissions orally and appearing before the delegate to present evidence; or
3. making submissions by telephone or video call to a person ASIC has appointed to hear the matter.

You may exercise your right by doing one of these options.

Once you have notified ASIC of your wish to demonstrate why you should not be disqualified a delegate will write to you with further details of the hearing procedure.

If you do not wish to demonstrate why you should not be disqualified, a decision will be made by a delegate on the information available.

If you wish to have access to the documents listed in Attachment "B" you should contact ASIC as soon as possible. Access to documents which are identified as "confidential" may be given subject to strict conditions of confidentiality.
