Privacy

The ATO is authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request you to quote your tax file number (TFN). It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, your application may be delayed if you do not quote your TFN.

The ATO is also authorised by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999 to ask for the other information on this application. We need this information to help us to administer the taxation laws.

We may give this information to other government agencies as authorised in taxation law – for example, benefit payment agencies such as the Department of Human Services, the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations, and the Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs; law enforcement agencies such as state and federal police; and other agencies such as the Australian Bureau of Statistics and the Reserve Bank of Australia.

Changes to the Privacy Act 1988 start on 12 March 2014. More information about your privacy and handling of personal information will be available at ato.gov.au from 12 March 2014.

Read and sign the declaration after completing your application. Even though someone else may have helped you to complete your application, you are responsible for the information provided and you must sign the declaration.

I declare that:

- all the information I have given on this application is true and correct
- I do not need to lodge a tax return and have no tax payable for the 2012–13 income year
- I have shown the total of my dividend income and franking credits received during the 2012–13 income year AND
- I have the necessary records to support my application for a refund of franking credits.

IMPORTANT

The ATO may confirm with the payer who sent you your dividend or distribution statement that the information you have provided on this application is correct. The tax law imposes heavy penalties for giving false or misleading information.

If lodging by phone, record your receipt number here.
